

About Us

Naiman Clarke was established in 1999, and since this time has been driven by the desire to be the best specialised legal recruiter in Australia. We have always believed that the only way to achieve this goal is to consistently deliver results by providing creative solutions that exceed the expectation of clients and candidates. This means providing our clients with access to the best candidates and our candidates access to the best career opportunities. What makes us unique? In achieving our goals we consistently strive to become a valued and trusted partner of our clients and candidates. This is because the core values that govern our company recognise the importance of people. We value our people and the partnerships that we create with our clients and candidates. We continually strive to achieve excellence through continuous improvement, teamwork and fairness. Our high ethical standards also ensure that integrity and respect are never sacrificed for short term gain.

With eight consultants dedicated to professional legal recruitment, we are one of the largest, most knowledgeable and most experienced consultancies in the country. Our experience, industry knowledge and attention to detail ensures a precise client-candidate complement every time. Our Clients Being a premier legal recruitment agency we specialise in recruiting professional and support staff to legal firms, government and corporations.
